

Is your program ready for ACCE accreditation?

Take this easy self study and find out! If you answer yes to most questions within each category then you may want to think about investing a piece of your time into documentation of those facts through the ACCE self-study process and going through the Accreditation Process. Most of the program directors that have gone through the process estimate that the ACCE self-study takes approximately three working days. An Application can be submitted at any time. Once an application is sent to the review team, the review team will work with the applicant to set up and complete a site-visit and submit a report and recommendation to the Accreditation Council for Cooperative Education to be decided through a vote of the Board Members. The accreditation process should take 6 months.
